

Mark Kremen - Senior Partner, Training Unlimited, LLC

Mark is an experienced human resources consultant who specializes in training and development. He works closely with the public sector employees within the City of New York. He is a regular trainer at the Citywide Training Center, providing consulting and professional development programs.

He also has worked extensively with the State of New Jersey and its Human Resources Development Institute (HRDI) in designing, development, and delivering classroom based programs for employees at all levels of government and across all agencies.

Additionally, he was work closely with municipals officials to provide customized training solutions to address the needs of municipalities across the state.

Mark holds a Master of Science in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Radford University in Virginia and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Longwood College, also in Virginia.

Mark is active in the Human Resources profession. He served as the elected President of the Jersey Shore Association for Human Resources from 2007-2009 and currently sits on its Executive Board. He is also a board member for the Wall Township H.S. Business Finance Academy.