

Robert P. Kane

Bob is a Senior Partner with Training Unlimited, LLC. He has extensive experience in the training and development of public sector employees. He has worked closely with the State of New Jersey and its Human Resources Development Institute (HRDI) in providing classroom based, instructor – led programs for employees at all levels of state government.

Additionally, he works closely with the City of New York’s Citywide Training Center to design, develop, and deliver customized programs for the city’s workforce. He understands the challenges facing public sector employees in today’s environment and works with them to provide the tools and skills necessary for them to be successful.

In addition to his career, he is active in a variety of professional and educational organizations.

Bob is active in the human resources profession. He is past president (2010-2011) of the Jersey Shore Association for Human Resources. He continues to serve on its Executive Board, as Director of the Scholarship and Sponsorship Committee. Additionally, he was named to the St. Bonaventure University’s National Alumni Association Board in 2008 and was elected president in May 2013. He is serving a two-year term on the University’s Board of Trustees. He earned a bachelor’s degree in Journalism from the university.
